

a podcast from
BirdNote®

Episode 6 Bird List: Cold Lake Amphitheater

Prepared by Bob Sundstrom

- 2:12 High-pitched whine of insects, loud
- 2:17 Western Meadowlark song begins, remains prominent in first minutes
- 2:22 Red-winged Blackbird calls begin
- 2:30 Distant Mourning Dove cooing
- 2:43 Red-winged Blackbird songs begin
- 3:06 Song Sparrow thin ("seet") call notes
- 4:12 Marsh Wren begins singing
- 4:15 Song Sparrow and Red-winged Blackbird songs together; splashing (possibly American Coots)
- 4:49 Canada Geese calls begin; at 5:08 very loud calls of multiple pairs; 5:28 pair calling in unison while in flight
- 4:58 Mourning Dove cooing now louder
- 5:47 Killdeer begins calling
- 5:50 Medley of Marsh Wren, Red-winged Blackbird, Mourning Dove, Killdeer, Song Sparrow, Canada Geese
- 6:30 Marsh Wren now loudest song
- 7:00 Yellow-headed Blackbirds begin singing, almost as loud as Marsh Wren
- 7:40 Loud counter-singing of Yellow-headed Blackbird males
- 7:45 Medley of Marsh Wren, Yellow-headed and Red-winged Blackbirds, Mourning Dove, Killdeer, and Song Sparrow
- 8:39 Black-headed Grosbeak begins singing
- 9:02 Yellow Warbler song begins, somewhat in background
- 9:09 Woodpecker drumming (likely Northern Flicker, which begins calling later)
- 9:26 Tree Swallow call notes
- 9:36 American Coots begin grunting calls
- 10:00 Medley now dominated by Yellow-headed Blackbirds, Red-winged Blackbirds, Black-headed Grosbeak and Yellow Warbler
- 11:09 Unidentified ducks quacking sporadically (likely Mallards)

- 11:21 Black-capped Chickadee sings a few times
- 11:40 Song Sparrow song again
- Medley from about 12:45 to 15:30 has Song Sparrow prominent, in forefront with Marsh Wren, Canada Geese in background
- 15:02 Pacific Chorus Frogs begin calling
- 15:40 Killdeer calls prominent
- 15:50 Red-winged Blackbird prominent
- 16:27 Spotted Sandpiper calls briefly
- 17:06 Piercing single call notes of Red-winged Blackbirds
- 17:54 First few calls of Common Poorwill in background
- 18:06 Killdeer “trill”
- 18:30 Loud quacks, likely Mallard
- 18:32 Call notes (“whit”) of Willow Flycatcher
- 18:50 Cedar Waxwing trills briefly
- 19:09 Sound landscape becomes more quiet; by 19:23 Common Poorwill begins calling again, signaling dusk
- 19:40 Tree Swallow calls
- 20:20 Pacific Chorus Frogs at fore of sound; a few Red-winged Blackbird calls in background
- 21:40 Common Poorwill calls loud now, Red-winged Blackbird behind
- 22:02 Pacific Chorus Frogs loud again, as several males begin synchronized chorus of calls
- 22:35 Willow Flycatcher begins singing; Mourning Dove and Red-winged Blackbird behind
- 23:08 Canada Geese calling; Northern Flicker calling
- 23:55 Red-winged Blackbird and Northern Flicker calling repeatedly
- 24:00 Killdeer flies by, calling

